COMMODORE'S CORNER

You should have been there. The annual two week cruise has just ended and Karl and I survived sailing in monsoon rains and dealing with engine woes but we had a blast. Fireworks in Annapolis were amazing with the piers, docks, moorings, and anchorages filled to capacity. We were able to actually sail several days back and forth across the bay though the wind did let us (and our sails) down on a few occasions. No crab pots were harmed by anyone but it wasn't for lack of effort! Dining out was a treat and we spent cool nights in A/C in safe marinas on several nights. So think about joining us next year. It is nice to travel in a loose flotilla with everyone looking out for each other. Many, many thanks go to Sergio Diehl for making plans and keeping us all going in one general direction.

We are now in the middle of sailing season and there is a lot going on for racers and cruisers alike. For the racers:

- Little Bay Challenge co-hosted with Portsmouth Boat Club on July 20.
 - Richard B. Johnson Memorial Regatta for one design/dinghy on July 27.
 - Cape Charles Cup on the weekend of August 17 and 18 (racers or cruisers, this is a fun race).
- See the web site for details and entry forms.

For the cruisers, these are weekend cruises in the near future:

- July 20 and 21, Jerry and Jean Pattenaude's Sunset Beach cruise.
- Our Back River cruise the weekend of July 27 and 28. We are sticking with the Oktoberfest theme for the cruise.

Keep the Treiber and Shipp families in your thoughts and prayers. There is more information about Nina in the Membership section.

Our next meeting will be a pool party/pot luck, Tuesday, July 16th, 5:30pm at Sergio Diehl's house. 1417 Shoveller Ave, Virginia Beach. Bring a dish to share and a spoon to serve it with.

See you there,
Ronda

I will have Burgees with me at the pool party at Sergio's. The cost is $20 or $21 if mailed to you. Check your Burgee out and if "shabby" why not get another, or if you don't have one now is the time! A few years ago a long ago friend of Jim's noticed our Burgee when we were at a marina and came over for a great visit. Just a good example of a reason to have one. If you want a cap or shirt with BBSA logo and ship's name embroidered on it, contact Sean Myers, kila2351@yahoo.com. Tell him Bev suggested it. He does a good job.
