COMMODORE'S CORNER

Jim Currie, commodore@broadbaysailing.org

Most of you will already be aware that the BBSA has lost one of its favorite sons. Leo Wardrup, a longtime member and racer, has sadly lost his fight against cancer. His great love of competitive racing led him to inaugurate the Cape Charles Cup and in his honor the BBSA has decided to rename the cup after him. In the racing section of the banter there is additional information on the BBSA's tributes to Leo. Our thoughts go out to Leo's wife Gloria and his family. As the Cape Charles Cup was a great love in Leo's life the Wardrup family have kindly suggested that donations in memory of Leo be made to the Cape Charles Cup. Donations should be made out to the Broad Bay Sailing Association at PO Box 14324, Norfolk, VA 23518.

I believe one way we can all honor Leo is to make this year's Cape Charles Cup the best participated race ever.

Another racing note I must pass along. Regretfully we will not be holding the Richard B. Johnson Memorial Regatta this year. Unfortunately we have not been able to find someone to take on the duties of the one design fleet captain in order to put on our one design races. This is a very important aspect of our club because this is a big part of getting young people involved in sailing. Jerry Pattenaude has written a letter posted in the Racing News section addressing the situation with our one design program. Please read it and if anyone is interested in taking on these duties contact me or Jerry.

Our thoughts also go out to Chip Jones and his family on the death of his mum.

The two week cruise arrived safely back in port and by all accounts was one of the best cruises ever. Next month's banter will provide all the memorable moments from the cruise.

To end on a happy note I am a grandfather for the first time; hopefully, another keen sailor to the fold.

Jim Currie

Leo Wardrup Memorial Cape Charles Cup Race Information – Hank Giffin:

The Cape Charles Cup Committee has renamed the race in Leo Wardrup's memory. Leo was a major influence in resurrecting the race in 2004, and was very proud of the opportunity it gave young sailors to experience the rigors of open water sailing. He was also a big proponent of the donation the CCC made the last few years to the Sail Nauticus program, which exposes underprivileged youth to sailing on the Norfolk waterfront. Those donations came from raffle, auction, and T shirt sales at the race. The race will now be called the Leo Wardrup Memorial Cape Charles Cup.

The Early-Bird entry date to get the reduced entry fee and dinner tickets is coming up soon – July 23rd. It also ensures you will get your choice of T-Shirt sizes.

The entry form is below. Please contact Hank Giffin, Event Chairman for more info or questions at 757-375-1491, CCcup@broadbaysailing.org.

Fellow club members,

What can we do as a club to revitalize our One Design/Small boat division? I need some help here. The Broad Bay One Design regatta did not happen again this year and that is disappointing. We only have three small boat regattas a year. One is held in conjunction with the Atlantic Neptune regatta. Small boat racing is one of the avenues that younger sailors use to get experience, enjoy a club events, and maybe move up to the larger sailing vessels. I know I did and will continue to do both. Other clubs host regattas and invite us to join them so why shouldn't we be doing the same? ODU has offered their facility to us to use which means we have an opportunity to host a premier event.

Calls have to be made ahead of time to other clubs and to our own fleets to ensure we have enough sailors to make it worth the effort of those who are willing to take a day out of their summer and help the Club host this regatta. No one in our club has stepped up and unfortunately, without that one person, that one visionary, that one lovely person, we are letting ourselves and the rest of the sailing community down. The future of our sport could very well hinge on that one enthusiastic person. I want to thank Randy Pugh for offering to help someone to put the Broad Bay regatta on.

I will be out of town for the Richard B. Johnston Memorial regatta which is on Saturday, the 26th of July so I will not be around to see how this event goes down. But since I haven't heard much, my expectations aren't high. There must be someone in this sailing club that didn't know we are in need of help here and wants to be that shining star; if not this year, then perhaps getting this club in shape for the next few years to come. Being active in this club does have its rewards.

Whoever wants to pick up the ball here can count on me to help them. My number is 543-3029. Let's have some fun with this.

Shark sailor,
Jerry Pattenaude
