COMMODORE'S CORNER

Bill Barnes, commodore@broadbaysailing.org

Well folks summer is flying by. So get in your cruising and racing before it's too late!

Tickets are now being sold for the CCV Dinner and Awards Ceremony and the LWMCCC is only two weeks away. These events are wonderful and I would encourage everyone to take part in both, you will only have regrets if you miss them.

Our next meeting is only two days after LWMCCC. It will give you something to talk about at the meeting. Mark your calendar for August 18th, 6:30pm at Lagoon Restaurant.

On a personal note, I just contracted for my new pool. It should be completed by October, plenty of time for winter parties in SW Fl. with a heated pool, come visit.

New electronics for sailing is coming on the market. B&G is producing a new GPS especially for sailboats. It automatically measures all kinds of stuff, drift, wind changes, distance to mark, angle to the mark and indicates when you should tack. It's really neat!

Safety is always paramount to the sailing community, cruising or racing. We should be mindful of safety equipment's, location, quantity, condition and expiration dates. Regular inspections are mandatory.

Happy sailing,

Bill

Post Event Review of the Play Ball Cruise, by Eric Fee:

The July 25-26 BBSA Norfolk Tides Baseball Cruise was a fantastic event enjoyed by all. Sailors came by sea, by land, some anchored & some took a slip at Tidewater Yachts Marina in Portsmouth. The pool was refreshing on a seasonable summer day. And, the adjacent covered deck filled with refreshing adult beverages and munchies was enjoyed by all.

The HRT ferry (and water taxi) transported the fans to the game. And, a good game it was...bases loaded in the bottom of the 9th with the Tides unable to overcome the 2-1 deficit to the Durham Bulls.

Sunday morning brought coffee and danish for the enjoyment of the arm-chair sports analysts gathered on the dock. There was no discussion of weather; the skies indicated another beautiful day on the Bay.

Special thanks to Marie & Gary Roberson of Hampton Roads Fleet 30 who allowed BBSA to dovetail with their club's event.

The BBSA attendees were:

"E"- Eric Fee

Summer Wine - Capt. John Scott

Seaquel - Joel and Donna Penne & Russ and Melody Fink

Mariah - Doug and Judy Rose & grand kids

Quantum Leap - Jay Rickles and Robin Garlick

Coriolis - Andy and Carmen Spittler
