COMMODORE'S CORNER

Jean Pattenau, commodore@broadbaysailing.org

September went out with a bang! We joined a cruise the weekend of the 23rd of September that was sponsored by Karl and Ronda Shulenburg to Seaford Yacht Club. SYC greeted us with open arms with many of their members gathering under the gazebo to party with us. The food that was shared for the docktails was outstanding! After partying until midnight on Shangri-La, Jerry was still able to catch a most beautiful sunrise. This was Jerry and mine first time at this beautiful anchorage, we are likely to return soon.

We held the Neptune Atlantic Regatta last weekend, which turned out to be a great race! Our sponsors Fish & Slips, Mannino's Italian Bistro, and Coyote Cafe 51, did a wonderful job supplying the wine and beer for the skippers meeting, catered the food at the awards ceremony, and contributed monetary funds to help with expenses. We appreciate their sponsorship and all the sailors that came and raced in this regatta. Without the support, this event would not be what it is today.

An amazing story unfolded during this race. On S/V Kaleidoscope, Chris Whately and his crew spotted a man floating in the water in the Chesapeake Bay. His kayak had flipped over in the bad conditions and he was separated from it. He was treading water for approximately 2 hours. They stopped and rescued him, and proceeded to finish the race with him on board. The weather conditions were terrible, rough and windy. No one was spotted on the water other than our boats because of the race. It is safe to say, if this race was not being run, his chances of being spotted and saved were very slim. We have heroes among us! Good job S/V Kaleidoscope! We look forward to hearing more details from Chris. Oh, by the way, they ended up finishing 2nd place overall.

Our next membership meeting will be at the Luna Maya Restaurant, October 17th at 6:30. Their address is 2010 Colley Ave., Norfolk, Va. I will need to have RSVP's back to me at jean@leofjohnscontractor.com by October 12th. They are supplying us with our own room in the back so they will need to know how much help to bring in for our group. Please RSVP, this is important! At this meeting we will ask for nominations for officers for next year, and then the slate will be voted on at our November meeting. If you would like to volunteer for a spot on the board, please see Guy Sorensen. The menu for Luna Maya follows the Commodore's Corner.

Write this down! Our November meeting will be held at the ODU Sailing Center on November 14th at 6:30pm. This is one week earlier than our normal meeting time so the meeting date does not interfere with the Thanksgiving holiday. This will be a pot luck and BBSA's holiday party. More information will be provided in the next Banter.

Last year, BBSA had a float in various Christmas Parades. We are looking for volunteers to help put our Christmas sailing float together for the lighting of Norfolk Illumination parade. We can use help decorating the float, and we need volunteers to walk alongside the night of the parade. If you are interested please contact Jonathan Romero at romeroarms@cox.net or myself at jean@leofjohnscontractor.com This is a real fun time, sign up now!

I have some exciting news to share! Sergio has made arrangements to have our Annual Banquet (Change of Command) at the Cavalier Yacht Club on Saturday January 27th. Save the date!!

I have been asked what is the status of the BVI cruise? It is on! They have assured me they will be ready to go and provide excellent service! Since they are scrambling at this time, and having some issues with communication, I have not included the cruise invitation in this Banter. As soon as I receive more information and the availability of boats, we can pick up where we left off.

Fall is in the air, but now is the best sailing weather, make time to get out while you can!
Jean Pattenau

RACING NEWS

Scott Almond, racing@broadbaysailing.org

Jerry Pattenau, onedesign@broadbaysailing.org

"Small Craft Advisory". Let me start by saying that I consider a Pearson 26 to be a small craft... and yet we (the Neptune's Atlantic Regatta Race Committee) went out in WHARF RAT, Andy Spittler's Pearson 26 and anchored in a 20+ knot breeze from the NNW shortly before 0900 and stayed on-station until shortly after 1030 when seas were easily 3-4 feet outside of Little Creek Inlet. With the majority of us feeling green in the gills within the first half hour, even the breakfast jokes got old (yummy!). I took another one "for the team" when I lost my vintage, collector's item, 2006 Volvo Penta Cape Charles Cup hat while hoisting anchor as the bow of Andy's boat was submarining into the waves. After seeing off 22 of the 30 boats entered (yes, there were 8 smart skippers that decided that coffee on the couch with ESPN SportsCenter was a better option that morning than racing), we hustled in and then lead-footed it down to the oceanfront where Jean and Jerry Pattenau, along with Bob Howell (one of the smart ones) were already on-station to record the first 8 boats, which crossed the finish line around 11:45am! With only 2 dropping out, the remaining fleet of 20 sailed the 15 mile course before 12:10pm!

The really exciting news, though, came on-board KALEIDOSCOPE, Chris Whately's Hunter 30. Half-way through the race, the crew on KALEIDOSCOPE rescued a kayaker from a certain bad outcome (at that point, in the water with no kayak around) who had been in the water for some time. My hat is off to Chris and his crew for their Corinthian spirit. There's more... KALEIDOSCOPE went on to win her class and was the 2nd boat to cross the finish line, only 39 seconds behind the First to Finish sled, DANGER PAWS.

Big thanks to our Signal Boat Crew, Andy Spittler (skipper) and Dickie and Sally Cole for their excellent work (at keeping their breakfast down; it's a little funny, now). Also, a big thank you to Chris Talbert who graciously volunteered to set and recover the finish line mark along with his 1st mate, Erik Saylor, as well as Sandy Smith and Bob Howell, who helped us at the finish line. Event chairman, Jerry Pattenau, did another great job this year and secured a fantastic sponsor in Mannino's Italian Bistro, who took over as our major sponsor for The Raven, who had supported us for many years.

CRUISING NEWS

Sergio Diehl, cruising@broadbaysailing.org

BBSA Cruisers

A good month for sailing, with temperatures that are near perfect for evenings at anchor, the bad news is "Winter is Coming". Following two years of bad weather for the Labor Day Weekend Cruise, S/V Shangri-La was finally able to get their cruise to the Ware River where there were plenty of fresh Oysters which Jerry plucked out of the water only hours before they made it to the grill. The cruise to Southhall landing did not materialize, and I was so looking forward to the Shrimp Boil, maybe we can convince the Clark's to try again soon. Hope the hurricanes with the rain and some wind stay far enough East for the rest of the Season to have no effect on our weekend plans. There are no cruises planned for the upcoming month, although one of my favorite Land Cruises is the Annapolis Boat Show where I know that I will run into a good number of members and cruisers looking for the latest in gadgets, or to fill out their lists for Santa. We still have a couple of cruises planned for the remainder of the year, our calendar is posted on the web site. Please take a few minutes to RSVP to the Cruise Captains to assist with their planning as well as start making your reservations as slips on the weekends start filling up.

Time to get underway,
Sergio
S/V Modus Vivendi

Labor Day Cruise

We have been trying to sail to the Ware River for a party at Nam Vu's house for 2 years, but tropical storms would get in the way. This year we were successful! Some joined us by car because the weather was predicted to be real rainy and rough, but it ended up being a good sailing day.

Nam Vu and his wife, Hoa, put on a nice party and cooked up lots of food along with supplying us with many oysters. The oysters were fresh and huge as Jerry helped Nam Vu pull them from their cages under his just before we started to roast them. We had S/V Melantho 2, Shangri-La, Summer Wine and Flight Risk sail to the venue. Bucky and Leslie, Sergio and Misty along with his family joined us by car.

On the 2nd day, part of the group sailed to York River Yacht Haven, where we enjoyed docktails and apps with Jack and Rita, S/V Dessert First, Ron and Debbie, and SV Hedonist, Barb and Grant. We ate in the restaurant on the dock and then Jerry and Joe helped Grant fix a fuel problem on his boat. It was a long night, but Barb and Grant were able to leave on their own power in the morning. The wind direction which was mostly on the nose prevented us getting much of a sail in but we tried.

I want to thank everyone who joined us, we had a nice time.

Jean & Jerry Pattenaude
S/V Shangri-La

Seaford Yacht Club/Back Creek Cruise

It was a great weekend for sailing! Unfortunately, on Saturday the wind was from the north so if you wanted to get up the bay without iron assistance, you would have had to tack back and forth... against the current. For us it was a "motor sail" for a good part of the journey to SYC. Thanks to the storms being off the coast... luckily FAR off the coast, the northerly breezes, and being informed that dredging had recently taken place in Back Creek, we decided to "test the depths" and take Bella Vela to the club. It provided an us opportunity to show off our boat to my parents. But enough about me...

Seaford Yacht Club moved their happy hour from Friday to Saturday so that they could join us for "docktails" under their tent on the pier. A nice crowd was on hand. Joining us from BBSA were (at anchor) Virginia Breeze, Tiki Rose, Shangri La, Nuance, (land cruisers) Modus Vivendi, Dreamtime, and Rhumba. A good time was had by all as we got to meet the membership of SYC and share sea stories... hmm... imagine that being amongst sailors! As darkness set in, the crowd dwindled to the few that braved the mosquitos to hang out a little longer... and share more stories. Those at anchor convened on Shangri La to continue the party. From what I have heard, it was a great time and late comers, Hedonist, joined in!

Sunday started out with light breezes. But as we were on the verge of throwing in the towel and start the motor, the winds picked up and it proved to be a good day for a sail... Until the flies showed up! So, to make it interesting, it became a game of "how many can you get with one swat of the fly swatter?" (Ronda won with three, I could only get two.) All-in-all, it was a fun weekend to be with good friends and meet new ones.

Karl Shulenburg & Ronda Borberg-Shulenburg
S/V Bella Vela
