COMMODORE'S CORNER

Stephanie Sweeney, commodore@broadbaysailing.org

Hopefully, we have all made it through April healthy and doing some different things while we have been safe social distancing. To do something different, one night I played a really fun hysterically bad game of air hockey after dinner with my friend. I learned that it is a good thing that I sail because I am terrible at air hockey. At least he did not let me win and the dinner we made was amazing. After losing badly at air hockey, I participated in Hampton Yacht Club's virtual Wednesday night regatta. After three nights of virtual sailing, I have found that I am equally as bad at virtual sailing as I am at air hockey. Thankfully through work, I was able to go back to what I'm good at and deliver a boat from Key West to Norton Yachts in Deltaville, VA. I was in Key West for three hours. It took us five days to complete the 1100-mile offshore journey to Deltaville, VA. In the five days, we caught two blackfin tunas, had songbirds rest on the boat after being blown 100 miles offshore in storms, and woke up to one violent squall. In the squall, we had a top boat speed of 21.6 kts. We averaged 11.6 kts of boat speed for the trip in the gulf stream. The boat was a Jeanneau Sun Odyssey 490.

As a sailmaker, I talk to colleagues and friends around the globe. I am good friends with Jimmy Miller of Doyle Hampton and Evan Harrell of Quantum in Portsmouth VA. The three of us were impacted as every large sail production loft in the world was shut down at the same time for three weeks. The new sail production loft in Deltaville has had supply chain issues. Helly Hansen closed in Norway and furloughed US employees. Jeanneau and Beneteau stopped building boats. Everything related to sailing from the production of boats, sails, gear, and events have been put on hold around the world. Local sailing events in all countries have been canceled. The good thing is that it is turning around. Last week the Durtek loft in Sri Lanka began operating at 25%. New Zealand allowed businesses to open on April 28th. Unfortunately, people did not adhere to the stay at home order in South Africa and there are lots of issues there causing further closures. Life will come back online slowly. It is just going to take some patience.

I have been asked a lot of questions regarding the future over the last few weeks. We have canceled May weeknight sailing and the membership meeting. Cape Henry Cup is TBD so we have the option to reschedule. I have been asked about June and I have no answers. The board and I will meet later this month to discuss June. The second question that I have been asked was about unofficial events. Unfortunately, we are not able to have any official or unofficial events currently. This decision has to do with organizational liability. This does not mean you cannot go out on your boats, call your friends and have them go out on their boats. Just do not organize anything officially or unofficially under the BBSA burgee. And please do not advertise, or ask to have your event posted on the BBSA website or Facebook pages. We cannot give the impression that the organization is supporting group participation in light of the governor's social distancing orders. Advertise your event on your own personal Facebook and Instagram accounts.

Lastly, the most frequently asked question I have been asked is about Cape Charles Cup. I have been asked if we will have it, cancel it or change the format. I do not know. It is too early for the board to decide on changing the direction of the event. The committee is still meeting and planning as if there is no pandemic.

Enjoy this time you have with your families. We will let you know of any changes. In the meantime, I am going to go find something else extra fun to do that I might be extra terrible at.

Team, looks like Commodore Stephanie pretty much covered the bases. Right now, as an organization, BBSA and LCSA are at the mercy of circumstances beyond our control. I'm still planning on a June 3rd start of the season (Series 1/Race 1), but I've always been the optimistic type. For 24 years I was taught to Standby to Standby. That experience in patience is now coming in handy.

I've seen several of you out on the water, and I make sure Wharf Rat keeps her proper social distance. She misses mixing it up at the start and marks. Hang tight, be mindful, and we'll get some racing in before the season is over.

See you about the water... Andy (LCSA Racing Coordinator)

CRUISING NEWS

Charity Gavaza, cruising@broadbaysailing.org

As the weather warms, all sailors become anxious to spend time on their boats and share tall tales with other sailors. Unfortunately, this year COVID-19 has prevented this from occurring so I am believing that you might be sharing my sentiments with a lot of pent up interest in getting out on the water. Although nothing can be certain at this point and time, being a glass half full sort of person, I am moving forward in the belief that June will offer opportunities to feel some sense of normalcy.

The adjusted 2020 BBSA Cruising calendar is posted on the website. Please take a few minutes to check out these schedules and if you are interested in joining any cruise, please contact the cruise captain(s) to let them know you are interested. This is much appreciated and is very helpful in planning the event. If you are interested in organizing/hosting a cruise, please call or email me so we can get it on the calendar. With all the changes that have occurred, there are many opportunities to fill weekends with fun. We are also missing a long cruise and would appreciate volunteers to fill this void.

Upcoming Cruises (Pending stand down of “stay at home” mandates)

Mobjack Bay, 13-14 June

To the fleet sailing to Mobjack Bay... Welcome to the Southern Chesapeake's best backyard ever! Our Primary Anchorage will be on East River, with the exact spot to be announced according to prevailing wind and conditions. More than likely this will be near Williams Wharf, and those wishing to go ashore can land dinghy's there. The fleet can stay tuned to Channel 68 during the cruise for updated information and any checking-in necessary. We should plan on being underway by mid-morning and try to average 5 knots overall due to the 30-mile sail involved. The timing of this cruise will be right after the stay at home orders for Virginia expire, so stay tuned in this regard. As of this time, the fleet will be planning 'virtual sundowner's' in each individual boat's cockpit, so 'bring what you need'.

Kiptopeke State Park, 19-21 June

“Ahoy, All Condo Cruisers, Want-to-be-s, and even Club dock walkers!”

We are planning for and hoping to be able to have our first real cruise of the year on June 19-21st to Kiptopeke State Park. Note that having it is totally dependent upon our State Governor being able to lift the statewide ban against congregating by June 10th as currently planned.,

After these past weeks of virus anxiety that has resulted in most of us feeling too cooped up and needing a medical injection of “ON BOARD” time, we want to plan to provide that much needed “fix” by getting together and have some well needed fun.

Beginning on Friday afternoon- April and I will sail over to Kiptopeke State Park – and anchor off the Concrete Ships. Our April Wind will act as the mother ship for the cruise and weather permitting, others are welcome to raft off of us for afternoon cocktails until nightfall.

On Saturday, we will be taking the party to the nearby beach so bring your dink and a reliable motor (or good strong arms) as there is often a current running N/S through the passage. Bring sunning chairs, umbrella's coolers, etc. and at 5:00 (Somewhere) we will begin to salute Poseidon and will warm up our small grill. I suggest you try to bring a small grill to the beach if you can along with your drink(s) of choice and snacks for the afternoon as well as dinner fixing to share. The plan is for all of us to enjoy being out on the water and together after such a long stressful confinement. Let's play at being beach bums and bunnies and plan to toast each other and to our good lives as we watch the sun sets to the West over the concrete ships. If by chance the weather is not conducive to beach time together the party on Saturday can join April and me aboard S/Y April Wind....just bring your own libations and dinner fixings, including enough to share as I will be grilling off the stern unless the rain gods are mad at us.

Sunday hopefully will offer more of the same fun until it is time to depart back to HYC. April Wind may even be serving Mimosas if you would like to come aboard for a last toast before departing. We will plan to stay awhile and ultimately hoist anchor about 1:30 PM depending upon the weather.

Where: Kiptopeke State Park – Anchorage inside of the Concrete ships. Approximately, 21 NM from HYC. Course approximate 058 from the High Range marker approximately 1 NM offshore of Fort Monroe's channel side beach. If you wish to come join us by land yacht, Kiptopeke State Park entrance is only a few miles North of the Eastern end of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge tunnel roadway termination onto the Eastern Shore.

Why There: This is a great anchorage with good holding assuming the use of the right weight anchor/chain; there is plenty of room for all of us to anchor overnight and the area is extremely peaceful. It offers a wonderful environment and frequently many species of seabirds can be seen all around you. The park offers nature walks which are currently open, and playgrounds and "facilities" ashore if they are reopened by then, as well to enjoy.

Why: We are joining together to bring in the new cruising season, and to celebrate (hopefully) the passing of the contagiousness currently confining us all.

What to Bring: April and I will be providing some light snacks and water, and ice to share in one cooler but we will definitely need more than one cooler for everyone to have cool drinks on the beach over a few hours of time. So, bring a cooler filled with ice if you can.

We suggest that you plan to bring your drink of preference, beach mats or blankets along with appropriate sunscreen, some yummy appetizers to share and what you would like to grill and eat for dinner. If you have portable deck chairs or small cocktail tables, they might really come in handy. Heck, if you still have those old winter socks to burn, bring them along and we will add them to the coals after all food has been grilled!

Ben and Christina Ritger's Press Release about Bay Harbor Brokerage:

Bay Harbor Brokerage has new owners Benjamin and Christina Ritger, a husband and wife duo, purchased Bay Harbor Brokerage on November 25, 2019.

Ben spent 20 years as a real estate broker, owning and running real estate brokerages in Florida. Selling the business in Florida, the Ritger's moved home to Tidewater where they have been actively involved in the local sailing and racing communities for the last 11 years. Together, they were last year's co-chairs of the Leo Wardrup Memorial Cape Charles Cup Regatta and Christina serves on the board of CCVR (Cruising Club of Virginia – Racing).

Ben and Christina are thrilled to be working in an industry in which they are already entrenched and look forward to helping people transact their boat sales.

The Ritger's bought Bay Harbor Brokerage from Ron & Kitty McLean, who started the company in 1979 after Ron's employer, Columbia Yachts, closed. They had a very successful 40 year run with Bay Harbor Brokerage. Along with selling boats, Ron is also an avid racer who has logged thousands of miles in local and ocean races. Still an integral part of Bay Harbor, Ron is still taking care of his customers and is staying on to help the Ritger's grow an already successful business. Together, Ron and Ben 65+ years of sailing/boating/brokering experience.

Ben, Christina, and Ron are ready to help you in your next yacht purchase or sale.

The Waterway Guide, AGLCA and Snag-A-Slip are reporting the changing status of access to marinas, services and docks during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Information can be found at
