For your first day of March Monday morning coffee:

MORGANA – Southern Wind Shipyard presents this custom RP-NAUTA 100. The boat is referred to as the epitome of a bluewater cruiser/racer. Whether you are engineer, naval architect, interior designer, bluewater sailor, racer, or just plain appreciator of fine things, especially sailboats, there is just under 20 minutes of peace and quiet exploring the details of a superyacht, narrated by several of the folks who had a hand in her build. Click here VIDEO: Behind the Build, Morgana >> Scuttlebutt Sailing News \(sailingscuttlebutt.com\) NOTE: Video via Scuttlebutt, 5760, February 23, 2021.

2021 SOUTHERN CHESAPEAKE BAY BIG BOAT SCHEDULE is available by email request to mcbear@earthlink.net or hit "reply" to this issue of SBRNYCU. Just say "2021 Schedule" on the Subj: line.

SPRING IS COMING and so is SAILBOAT RACING!! One thing a racer must tend to is being in the good graces of King Neptune throughout racing season. To do that you should offer up socks at a Sock Burning! Paying attention to the applicable covid requirements, be on the look-out for a Sock Burning, usually held around a late weekend in March. It's a tradition we can all do – no specific numbers criteria as far as the attendance to make a valid Sock Burning – King Neptune is impressed by sincerity, not volume. A single racer or crew can have a Sock Burning. Just by sure you toss your most meaningful offering 😊

MURPHY'S LAW: Yrs Truly, the Racing Beagle, is ready for more than one Sock Burning. Racing Beagles interchange socks with gloves on the forepaws – socks on all four when scrambling across the deck on tacks, and gloves on forepaws for jumpin' the halyard. The Murphster has already had one Sock Burning . . . tossed the offering in the backyard barbeque yesterday. There are still lots of creative ways to engage in a Sock Burning ritual – create one. Ahooooo! /S/ Murphy the Racing Beagle, the sailing spirit in us all.
