HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

DANA DILLON MEMORIAL NEW YEAR'S MADNESS RACE. It was 64 degrees. Sunshine and breeze. Just like being in South Beach Miami, . . . but without the airport hassle or I-95. The SW breeze filled in by noon and the fog burned off around noon:30. After breakfast at HYC, twelve (12) boats started the first race of the new year off the HYC docks and 11 finished at OPCYC on Mill Creek. This race is a staggered start / pursuit race. Peter Hunter's Thompson 30, WAIRERE, was last to start and first to finish overall. Second overall was Alan Bomar, J24, roundabout, and third overall was Dave Revill, J36, FEATHER. And, at the post-race festivities at OPCYC, the fare was black-eyes peas, the club's trademark grilled cheese sandwiches, and mimosas (which racers know prevent scurvy). A great way to start 2023 and bragging rights for all who are now one race ahead of everyone on the Bay. For complete RESULTS click 2023 Dana Dillon Memorial New Year's Madness Race RESULTS
