Grab on to Floatline. Here's a website that is up-do-date and filled with valid info. Check out www.floatline.com It is created and maintained by SpinSheet and offers an up-to-date source on Chesapeake Bay happenings - including great racing coverage.

CCV Special Awards: Each year CCV honors two individual racers with special recognition awards. This year Graham Field was honored with the Sportsmanship Award and Bumps Eberwine received the Commodore's Award. In addition CCV thanked all who have served on race committees throughout the year and recognized 5 individuals who have been on every CCV race committee in 2007: John McCarthy, Dick Boykin, Lin McCarthy, Buk Lawrence, and Bill Gibbings.

CARIBBEAN 1500 Update: The fastest classes are finishing right now. Club Carp, Jeff Carpenter's (Fairfax Station, VA) Jeanneau 54DS has taken line honors for the entire fleet. Follow the 1500 at www.carib1500.com It's an extremely user friendly site - click on "Caribbean 1500 Cup" on the left column, then choose from "news", "position reports", and "pictures" in the red print at the center of the page. The position reports on each rally class are particularly easy to read and understand.

HYC FALL FLING - From a Yuck Saturday to a Yummy Sunday: You had to have a real Racing Jones to be on the Bay Saturday, and most of the HYC Fall Fling fleet did just that. Four more joined in the fun on Sunday, 2 in each fleet. "We saw a lot of boat bottoms [on Saturday]," Kathy Brady said. The wind was in the mid-teens most of the afternoon, but the gusts were not friendly. 505 Class (7 boats): 1. Henry Amthor/Doug Amthor; 2. Jesse Falsone/Doug McKiege; 3. Thomas Loutrel/Justin Schaeffer. Lightning Class (9 boats): 1. Travis Weisleder; 2. Joe Buczkowski; 3. Alsalam Nabeel. Race Chairmen - Malcolm and Kathy Brady

Hampton Yacht Club has been tapped for two prestigious junior and youth sailing events. HYC will host the 2008 CBYRA Bay Open and Junior Olympics on July 12-13, 2008. And, US SAILING has designed HYC as host of the 2009 Ida Lewis Junior Women's Doublehanded Championship. This is not the first time the Ida Lewis has been to Hampton. The championship regatta was at HYC in 1998.

CCV Officials have announced there will be a CCV Cruising Fleet in 2008. This fleet will be restricted to single-headsail racing and participants will compete for a Cruising Fleet High Point Award.

Fishing Bay Yacht Club has been named as recipient of the 2007 US SAILING National One Design Regatta Award. FBYC was named for the outstanding job they did in hosting and administering the 2007 Flying Scot North American Championships. The US Sailing One Design Council gives a national award in five different categories each year. 120 Flying Scots raced at FBYC in late June; it was the largest regatta in the Flying Scot class history. Noel Clinard was the Event Chairman and John McCarthy was Principal Race Officer. Congratulations!!

CCV Board Members for 2008: Dave Taylor (commodore); Tom Peddy (vice-commodore); Jim Williams (secretary-treasurer); John McCarthy, Christian Schaumlöffel, Karl Petersen, Dave McConaughy, Neal Garrett, Huey Fourquet, Jake Brodersen, Ben Cuker, Rodney Paice, Dave Pyron, and Bob Thomas.

MURPHY'S LAW: Sailboat races, awards parties, family, and friends. Freedom to do as we wish and to be what we will. God bless and keep those who gave everything so we could have so much. /S/ Murphy the Racing Beagle, the sailing spirit in us all.
