Southern Bay Racing News You Can Use #643

SBRNYCU is an independent weekly publication of southern Chesapeake Bay racing happenings. Founded in April, 2000.

Try sailing - it's NOT easy! - Bill Schanen, SAILING Magazine

SBRW in a nutshell – 89 big boat skippers and crew sailed their brains out for three days in beautiful weather, partied their brains out with rockin' bands and Gosling's rum, partook of the downtown pirate festival street skirmishes and swashbucklin' fun, tried out vendor standup paddle boards, laughed, sang and danced with one another, watched fireworks from the host yacht club lawn and raced, and raced, and raced. The courses were different each day and to take home an award was no easy task. The challenges were in the harbor (triangles – multiple races), off Buckroe in the Bay (a distance race) and off Ocean View in the Bay (windward-leeward – multiple races). The winds were moderate to light on opening day, perfect 10-15 for the distance race, and 12-18 on the final day. For the best accounts ask a racer wearing a Black Seal Cup hat or an SBRW shirt – he or she was there.
