Try sailing - it's NOT easy! - Bill Schanen, SAILING Magazine

LAST REMINDER – TOMORROW - Tuesday, March 31 - CCV Annual Organizational Meeting. CCV will hand out their 2015 CCV Racing Guide on, at Hampton Yacht Club. Doors open at 6:30 pm for registration and Racing Guide pickup; meeting gets going at 7:00pm.

HOLY MACKEREL – APRIL FOOLS' DAY IS THIS WEDNESDAY. And, not to be out done, two groups of southern Bay racers will be racing on THE day: Broad Bay Sailing Association's Little Creek SA mid-week racing program and the Hampton Yacht Club "round the bar" fleet, the granddaddy of mid-week racing series, will open their seasons on Wednesday. And, then, the very next day, Thursday, April 2, BBSA's Willoughby Racers group will begin in Willoughby Bay, aka Little Bay. Get on out there. All three groups are hospitable to all, but each requires an application/entry form. For info contact: HYC – club office, 757-722-0711 or John McCarthy, Sail Captain, 757-850-4225; and for BBSA – Scott Almond, Racing Captain; Randy Goodman, Little Creek SA rep, 757-348-7921; or Guy Sorensen, Willoughby Racer reps, 757-754-6418.

SBRW has racing for PHRF, One Design, and Cruising Racers – something for everyone. Y'all come racing!

MURPHY'S LAW: Yrs Truly, The Racing Beagle, is of the opinion that 'most all good racers have offered up their socks to the racing gods by now. The next step is to dust off the flip flops so you can gain entry to "shoes-and-shirts-required" places. And, most important of all, toughen up the soles of da feet. To be able to walk barefoot on the sun warmed deck of a southern Bay race boat is food for the s-o-u-l soul indeed. Let's go racing! /S/ Murphy the Racing Beagle, the sailing spirit in us all.
