Screwpile Lighthouse Challenge. The first two days of racing at Screwpile proved to be fine for the task at hand. After the first race on Friday in light-but-adequate wind, the breeze gods relented and sent more wind, so the fleet got in two more races in good conditions. Saturday morning started out a bit light, but breeze built throughout mid-day and racers came in worn out and happy. On Sunday, the final day, a light morning breeze faded to nothing, and only one race was possible. Nine (9) southern Bay racers made the trip to Solomons, Maryland, for 2017 SPLC: Sitella, Seeker, Restless, Nanuq, Voodoo2, Danger Paws, Goin', Excitation, and Cheeky Monkey. Here are the ones who were on the podium after all was said and done: Nanuq*, Glenn Doncaster-1st in PHRF A2 (8 boats). Sitella, Ian Hill-2nd in PHRF A1 (8 boats). Goin', Dennis Hannick-2nd in PHRF B (11 boats). Cheeky Monkey, Paul and Julie Wash- 2nd in PHRF C (4 boats). Seeker, Alan Johnson-3rd in Cruising (15 boats). SPLC Event Chairman: LG Raley. MURPHY'S LAW: Yrs Truly, the Racing Beagle, has researched exactly how this hot summer month we are currently experiencing came to be named July. Here are the Murphster's findings and conclusions: Roman politician and eventually Roman Emperor Julius Caesar was born in the month of July. It was called Quintilis at the time of Big Julie's birth. So, when Emperor J. Caesar passed on, his followers, who evidently were in charge of honoring former politicians, decided to change the name of the month of his birth from Quintilis to July. The fact that a lot of hot air is put forth in July, may also have been a factor in the change. So, there it is. No one is sure how the Quintilis dude took the change – more research will be conducted when funding becomes available. Ahooo! /S/ Murphy the Racing Beagle, the sailing spirit in us all.
