LATANE MONTAGUE is the 2018 HAMPTON ONE-DESIGN NATIONAL CHAMPION! Latane along with his son "Little" Latane (14) put the Montague name on the championship trophy for a record setting 10th time. The regatta was held at Tred Avon Yacht Club in Oxford, Maryland. Eighteen (18) HODs raced in the 3-day event and were part of the TAYC Heritage Regatta which also included class racing for the International Stars, Chesapeake Log Canoes, Shields, Penguins and Comets. According to report, going into the last Race, 15 year old Jackson Montague lead the regatta by two points. But, the breeze picked up and the bigger Montague's prevailed, delivering the dad his 10th HOD National Championship Results: First Place: Latane Montague, Second Place: Randy & Teddy Stokes, Third Place: Gordon Wolcott, Fourth Place: Ian and Gordy Stokes.

CCV Founders Race. It was the kind of day racers wish for – moderate breeze and sunny – in Hampton Roads on Saturday. The committee set an 11.1 nautical mile course for PHRF A and an 8.6 NM for everyone else. This race counts toward the CCV (season long) High Point standings. RESULTS: PHRF A (8 boats) - 1. Neil and Liz Biondi Ford, Danger Paws; 2. Christian Schaumloffel, Myrage; 3. Phil Briggs, Feather. PHRF B/C (11 boats) – 1. Rusty Burshell, Cool Change; 2. Bob Archer, Bad Habit; 3. Ben Weeks & Michele Cochran, Rumble. PHRF Non-Spin (4 boats) – 1. Dixon Wilde, Kingfisher; 2. John Wandling, Pisces; 3. Bob Howell, Pegasus. Race Officer: Bob Thomas'

MURPHY'S LAW: Yrs Truly, the Racing Beagle, plans to be OTW (on the water) for as much of Labor Day weekend as possible. Hopefully, racing the majority of the time. After all, racing and Labor Day celebrations have two things in common: hotdogs and cold brewskies. It's ok to partake of more of each than usual – there is the official Monday holiday for recovery! /S/ Murphy the Racing Beagle, the sailing spirit in us all.
